5. GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

5.1. Legal and Contractual Considerations

5.1.1. Legal responsibility

IFC GLOBAL LLC continues its activities with the legal status of " IFC GLOBAL LLC Miami". The scope of activity has been established in such a way that it is responsible for all certification activities.

5.1.2. Certification agreement

IFC GLOBAL LLC enters legally enforceable contracts with each client to ensure that certification activities are conducted in accordance with the relevant requirements of the ISO/IEC 17021-1:2015 standard. In the event that IFC GLOBAL LLC has more than one office or the client has more than one site, IFC GLOBAL LLC enters into a legally enforceable contract with its clients that will cover all sites covered by the certification.

If IFC GLOBAL LLC has more than one office or the client has new sites, the contract is made in the form of multiple contracts that refer to or otherwise link to each other.

This agreement may be executed by any other key location authorized by the head office, with full legal binding effect on behalf of IFC GLOBAL LLC.

5.1.3. Responsibility for certification decisions

IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible for all decisions, including granting, refusing, maintaining, expanding, or reducing the scope of certification, reinstating or withdrawing certification after renewal, suspension or suspension. All these decisions are taken by the Certification Committee and/or the Certification Manager. This responsibility does not delegate to any other party, person, or organization other than IFC GLOBAL LLC.

5.2. Managing Impartiality

5.2.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC carries out its certification activities impartially. IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible for the impartiality of its certification activities and does not allow commercial, financial, or other pressures to overshadow its impartiality.

5.2.2. IFC GLOBAL LLC's top management has committed to impartiality for certification activities. IFC GLOBAL LLC has created the Impartiality and Confidentiality Statement to show that the importance of impartiality is understood while carrying out certification activities, conflicts of interest are managed, and the objectivity of certification activities is ensured. The Impartiality and Confidentiality Statement is publicly published on the IFC GLOBAL LLC website.

5.2.3. IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and maintains an up-to-date Conflict of Interest Risk Assessment Table in order to continuously identify, analyze, evaluate, address and monitor risks related to conflict of interest arising from the provision of certification, including conflicts arising from its own relationships. In cases where there is any threat to its impartiality, IFC GLOBAL LLC shows and documents how it eliminates or reduces such threats and also documents any residual risk, if any. Demonstration of this covers all potential threats identified, either from within IFC GLOBAL LLC or from other persons, committees, or the client's activities. If a relationship poses an unacceptable threat to impartiality (e.g., a wholly owned subsidiary of IFC GLOBAL LLC requires certification), certification will not be granted.

Top management reviews the residual risk to determine if it is at an acceptable level of risk.

The risk assessment process involves the identification and consultation of interested parties to make recommendations on issues affecting impartiality, including transparency and public perception. Consultation with appropriate interested parties is a balanced consultation in which unilateral interest does not prevail.

5.2.4. IFC GLOBAL LLC will not certify another certification body for management system certification activities.

5.2.5. IFC GLOBAL LLC, a division of IFC GLOBAL LLC, and any entity under the corporate control of IFC GLOBAL LLC does not offer or provide management system consultancy.

5.2.6. IFC GLOBAL LLC is considered a significant threat to impartiality if a division of IFC GLOBAL LLC conducts internal audits on its certified clients. Therefore, IFC GLOBAL LLC, a division of IFC GLOBAL LLC, and any entity under the corporate control of IFC GLOBAL LLC do not offer and provide internal audits to their certified clients.

5.2.7. Clients who have received internal audit or consultancy services on management systems are not certified if the consultancy organization providing this service has a relationship with IFC GLOBAL LLC that may pose a threat to impartiality.

IFC GLOBAL LLC does not have any relationship with any management system consulting organization with respect to ownership, administration, management, shared resources, financing, and contracts.

5.2.8. IFC GLOBAL LLC does not outsource an audit to the management system consultancy organization as it would be an unacceptable threat to its impartiality. This does not apply to individual Auditors.

5.2.9. IFC GLOBAL LLC's activities may not be marketed or promoted in connection with the activities of a management system consulting organization. IFC GLOBAL LLC takes the necessary measures to correct any inappropriate statements made by the consultant organization that certification is simpler, easier, faster, or cheaper. IFC GLOBAL LLC does not state or imply that certification will be simpler, easier, faster, or cheaper when a particular consulting organization is used.

5.2.10. To avoid a conflict of interest, no personnel providing management system consultancy, including those involved in the management of IFC GLOBAL LLC, can take part in the audit or certification process of the client in question for the same management system (if they have participated in the last two (2) years).

5.2.11. If threats to IFC GLOBAL LLC's impartiality arise from the activities of other individuals or organizations, the actions to remedy them are documented in the Conflict of Interest Risk Assessment Table.

5.2.12. IFC GLOBAL LLC is assured by contracts that all internal or external personnel or committees that may affect certification activities act impartially. In addition, it determines that it will not allow commercial, financial and other pressures that will jeopardize impartiality in any way, by addressing the contracts made and the Conflict of Interest Risk Assessment Table.

5.2.13. IFC GLOBAL LLC asks its internal or external personnels to report any situation that may bring them or IFC GLOBAL LLC into a conflict of interest. It will use as input information that identifies threats to impartiality arising from the activities of such personnel or organizations. It does not use this type of internal or external personnel unless it is shown that there is no conflict of interest.

5.3. Liability and financing

5.3.1. GLOBAL maintains “Professional Liability Insurance” for the assessment of significant risks arising from its certification activities and its liabilities arising from its activities in the geographical areas in which it operates.

5.3.2. If IFC GLOBAL LLC's accreditation is revoked by IFC GLOBAL LLC or suspended or withdrawn by the accreditation body, all damages arising from the certification activities of the certified clients are under the responsibility of IFC GLOBAL LLC. In this case, the damages incurred are eliminated by the transfer of the certification to an accredited certification body. In such a case, clients are informed in writing.

5.3.3. IFC GLOBAL LLC evaluates its sources of income and financing with the balance sheet of the previous period. Within the framework of the assessment it has made, it shows that commercial, financial, or other pressures do not jeopardize its impartiality.

7.5. Outsourcing

7.5.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and implements an Outsourcing Procedure that sets out the conditions under which any part of a certification activity may be performed by an external entity (i.e., subcontracted on IFC GLOBAL LLC's behalf). IFC GLOBAL LLC enters into a legally binding agreement with each outsourcing entity that addresses, at a minimum, confidentiality, impartiality, conflicts of interest, and legally controlled ownership requirements. The outsourced branch or group company — already majority controlled or owned by the same shareholder — will conduct all certification activities except the certification decision, strictly in line with this Manual and the procedures of IFC GLOBAL LLC.

The certification decision remains the sole responsibility of IFC GLOBAL LLC.

7.5.2. The decision to grant, not to grant or maintain certification, to expand or reduce the scope of certification, to suspend or restore certification, or to withdraw certification is not left to external sources.

7.5.3. IFC GLOBAL LLC provides the following:

- a) Assumes responsibility for all activities outsourced to the organization,
- b) Ensure that the outsourced organization and the people it uses meet the requirements of IFC GLOBAL LLC and the applicable requirements of the ISO/IEC 17021-1:2015 standard, including competence, impartiality, and confidentiality,

8. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

8.1. Public information

8.1.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC, without request, maintains the following information in all geographical regions where it operates (geographical areas where IFC GLOBAL LLC operates; all borders in United States of America and all countries of the world if the relevant Auditor and/or technical experts are available) and publishes it publicly on its www.ifcglobal.us address:

- a) Audit processes,
- b) Granting, rejecting, maintaining, expanding, or reducing the scope of certification, recertification, reinstatement, or withdrawal of certification after suspension or suspension,
- c) Management systems and certification programs,
- d) Use of IFC GLOBAL LLC's name and certification mark or logo,
- e) Processes for handling information, complaints, and appeal requests,
- f) Policy on impartiality.

8.1.2. IFC GLOBAL LLC will provide information on the following issues upon request:

- a) Geographical regions in which it operates,
- b) The status of a certification issued,
- c) Documented name of a specific client, relevant normative document, scope and geographical location (city and country).

8.1.3. It is ensured that the information provided by IFC GLOBAL LLC to the client or the market, including advertisements, is accurate and does not allow for misunderstanding.

8.2. Certification documents

8.2.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC provides certified organizations with a certificate as a certification document and, if necessary, its annexes, by cargo or by hand.

8.2.2. The information to be included in the certification documents is determined in the Certification Procedure.

8.3. Reference to certification and use of marks

8.3.1. A Certificate and Logo Usage Instruction has been created for the use of the management systems certification brand used by organizations certified by IFC GLOBAL LLC.

IFC GLOBAL LLC ensures traceability back with the information contained in the certificate.

When certified organizations use logos, the Certificate and Logo Usage Instruction ensure that there is no ambiguity in the logo or accompanying text about the certified matter and which certification body issued the certificate.

It is checked during the audits that the brands are used appropriately by certified organizations, that they are not used on the product or on the packaging of the product or in a way that shows the suitability of the product.

8.3.2. IFC GLOBAL LLC does not permit the use of its logos in laboratory tests, calibration, or audit reports.

8.3.3. IFC GLOBAL LLC has set out the rules for the use of any declaration of the certified client's certified management system on product packaging or accompanying information in the Certificate and Logo Usage Instructions.

8.3.4. IFC GLOBAL LLC requires the organization to provide a legally enforceable contract and the requirements set out in the Certificate and Logo Usage Instructions.

8.3.5. IFC GLOBAL LLC ensures proper control of the trademark it owns and has identified in the Certificate and Logo Usage Instructions to take the necessary action to prevent false references to certification status and misleading use of certification marks or audit reports. The relevant instruction is communicated to the client at the time of each certificate delivery/submission and is also published on the www.ifcglobal.us website.

IFC GLOBAL LLC carries out the necessary controls regarding the ownership of its logos during audits and through general monitoring and takes appropriate corrective action to prevent false references to certification status or misleading use of the certificate, logo, or audit reports. This corrective action may include withdrawal of certification, publication of the violation, and, if necessary, a request for legal action.

It may be determined that the organizations that are entitled to use the certificate use the certificate in a misleading manner or unfairly or use the information of the certificate in their promotional documents in a misleading way.

This determination can be made in the following ways:

- Informing IFC GLOBAL LLC about the misleading and unfair use of the certificate by individuals or organizations,
- Questioning the content of the scope of certification by public institutions, consumer courts and private companies that open tenders,
- Follow-up in written and visual media,
- By conducting on-site observations during the execution of audits.

9.4.3.2. In the event of unattainable audit objectives or the emergence of existing audit evidence indicating the presence of an immediate and significant risk (e.g., security), the lead auditor informs the organization and IFC GLOBAL LLC to determine the appropriate action. Such activities may include changing or terminating audit objectives or audit scope, amending, or reaffirming the audit plan. The lead auditor reports the result of the received activity to IFC GLOBAL LLC.

9.4.3.3. The lead auditor reviews any changes to the scope of the audit that arise in the progress of the audit activities conducted in the site with the organization and reports this to IFC GLOBAL LLC.

9.4.4. Obtaining and verifying information

9.4.4.1. During the audit, information on audit objectives, scope and criteria (including information on interfaces between functions, activities and processes) is obtained by appropriate sampling and verified as audit evidence.

9.4.4.2. The methods of collecting information are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.4.5. Identifying and recording audit findings

9.4.5.1. Audit findings summarizing and detailing nonconformity are reported and recorded in order to make an informed certification decision or to ensure maintain certification.

9.4.5.2. Opportunities for improvement are identified and recorded where appropriate. Audit findings detected in the form of nonconformities are recorded as opportunities for improvement.

9.4.5.3. A finding of non-conformity detected according to a specific requirement is recorded and includes a clear statement of non-conformity that describes in detail the objective evidence on which the nonconformity is based. Nonconformities the organization is consulted to ensure that nonconformities are understood and that the evidence is accurate and accurate. However, the auditor refrains from proposing the cause of nonconformities or their solution.

9.4.5.4. The lead auditor attempts to resolve differing opinions between the organization and the audit team regarding the audit evidence or findings and records any unresolved issues.

9.4.6. Preparing of audit results

Prior to the closing meeting, the actions to be taken are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.4.7. Conducting the closing meeting

9.4.7.1. Where participants are registered and, where appropriate, a formal closing meeting is held with the persons responsible for the audited processes or functions and the top management of the organization. The purpose of the closing meeting, which is normally conducted by the lead auditor, is to present the audit results, which include recommendations on certification. Each nonconformity is presented in an understandable manner and given time to respond to them.

9.4.7.2. The closing meeting is held in accordance with the Audit Procedure.

9.4.7.3. The organization is given the opportunity to ask questions. Different views on the audit findings or conclusions are discussed between the audit team and the organization and, if possible, a decision is reached. Different opinions that are not resolved are recorded and reported to IFC GLOBAL LLC.

9.4.8. Audit report

9.4.8.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC submits a written report to the organization for each audit. The audit team can identify opportunities for improvement but cannot recommend specific solutions. The audit report is the property of IFC GLOBAL LLC.

9.4.8.2. The lead auditor secures the preparation of the audit report and is responsible for its content. The audit report ensures that the audit is accurate, concise, and clear, which can enable the certification decision to be reported, and the matters it contains or refers to are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.4.8.3. The issues covered by the report are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.4.9. Cause analysis of nonconformities

IFC GLOBAL LLC requests the organization to conduct a cause analysis and define the correction and corrective actions taken or planned to be conduct within the specified time, and to eliminate the detected nonconformities.

9.4.10. Effectiveness of correction and corrective actions

IFC GLOBAL LLC reviews the corrections identified by the organization, the reasons identified and the applicable corrective actions.

IFC GLOBAL LLC verifies the effectiveness of each correction and corrective action taken.

The evidence obtained to support the resolution of nonconformities is recorded.

The organization is notified of the result of the review and validation.

The organization is informed of whether an additional full audit, an additional limited audit, or documented evidence (to be confirmed in subsequent audits) is required to effectively remediate and verify corrective actions.

9.6. Maintaining certification

IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and implements the Certification Procedure for the maintenance of certification.

9.6.1. General

Based on IFC GLOBAL LLC's demonstration that the organization continues to meet the requirements of the management system standard, the practices for maintaining certification are defined in the Certification Procedure.

9.6.2. Surveillance activities

9.6.2.1. General

9.6.2.1.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC develops its surveillance activities in such a way as to ensure that the sites and functions within the scope of the management system are regularly audited and carries out them taking into account the changes in the certified organization and the management system.

9.6.2.1.2. Audit activities include on-site auditing of the certified organization's management system to ensure that it meets the specified requirements of the certification reference standard. Requirements for other surveillance activities are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.6.2.2. Surveillance control

Surveillance audits are site audits. However, it does not require an audit of the entire system and is planned in such a way that, together with other surveillance audits, IFC GLOBAL LLC, maintains confidence in the fulfilment of the requirements of the certified management system between recertification audits. The issues to be addressed in surveillance audits for the relevant management system standards are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.6.3. Recertification

9.6.3.1. Recertification audit planning

9.6.3.1.1. The objective of the recertification audit is to confirm the continuous relevance and effectiveness of the management system, as well as its compliance and applicability for the scope of the certification. The recertification audit is planned and conducted to assess that all the requirements of the relevant management system standard are consistently met. This planning and execution are done within the appropriate periods of time for the renewal to take place before the end date of the certification.

9.6.3.1.2. The recertification audit also includes a review of previous surveillance audit reports and a review of the performance of the management system during the certification period.

9.6.3.1.3. In recertification audits, when there is a significant change in the management system, the organization, or the scope in which the management system operates (such as changes in legislation), a separate Stage 1 may be required.

9.6.3.2. Recertification audit

9.6.3.2.1. The issues covered by the recertification audit are defined in the Audit Procedure.

9.6.3.2.2. For any major nonconformity, IFC GLOBAL LLC has defined the time limit for correction and corrective action in its Audit Procedure. It is ensured that these activities are conducted and verified before the certification period expires.

9.6.3.2.3. When the recertification activities are successful before the expiry of the existing certification, the publication date of the existing certification is taken as the basis for the validity period of the recertification. If requested by the organization or if there is any requirement (delay in completion of corrective action, etc.), the publication date of the new certification may be the date of the recertification decision or a later date.

9.6.3.2.4. If IFC GLOBAL LLC fails to complete the recertification audit or verify that the correction and corrective action has been taken for any major nonconformity prior to the validity period of the certification, recertification is not recommended, and the validity of the certification is not extended. In this case, the organization is informed and what to do next is notified.

9.6.3.2.5. Following the expiry date of the certification, IFC GLOBAL LLC may reinstate the certification within 6 months, provided that the remaining recertification activities have been completed, otherwise it will perform at least a stage 2. The certification date will be the date of recertification or a later date, and the validity period will be based on the publication date of the previous certification.

9.6.4. Special audits

9.6.4.1. Expanding scope

In response to an application for an extension of the scope of certification already granted, IFC GLOBAL LLC conducts a review of the application and determines the necessary audit activities to decide whether an extension can be made. This audit may be conducted in conjunction with a surveillance audit where appropriate.

9.6.4.2. Short-notice audits

IFC GLOBAL LLC may be required to subject the certified organization to an audit within a short period of time to investigate complaints or address changes, or to follow up on client entities whose certification has been suspended.

The points to be considered in such cases are defined in the Certification Procedure.

9.6.5. Suspending, withdrawing or reducing the scope of certification

9.6.5.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and implements the Certification Suspension and Withdrawal Procedure for suspending, withdrawing, or reducing the scope of certification.

9.6.5.2. IFC GLOBAL LLC's suspension practices are defined in the Suspension and Withdrawal of Certification Procedure.

9.6.5.3. In the event of suspension, the organization's management system certificate is temporarily invalid.

9.6.5.4. IFC GLOBAL LLC will reinstate the suspended certification if the issue giving rise to the suspension is resolved. IFC GLOBAL LLC withdraws the certification or reduces the scope of the certification if the issue resulting in the suspension is not resolved within the given time.

9.6.5.5. When the organization demonstrates a sustained or severe failure to meet the certification requirements for a portion of the certification scope, IFC GLOBAL LLC may reduce the certification scope of the organization to exclude the part that does not meet the requirements. It is ensured that such reducing is in line with the requirements of the standard used for certification.

9.7. Appeals

9.7.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and implements the Complaint and Appeal Procedure to receive, evaluate and decide on appeals.

9.7.2. IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible for decisions at all levels of dispute handling. IFC GLOBAL LLC has ensured that the persons involved in the dispute handling processes are different from those who make the certification decision and conduct the audit.

9.7.3. It is ensured that the acceptance, investigation, and decision of the appeals does not result in any discriminatory activity against the objector.

9.7.4. The stages of the appeal handling process are defined in the Complaint and Appeal Procedure.

9.7.5. Upon receipt of the appeal, IFC GLOBAL LLC collects and confirm all necessary information for the appeal to be valid.

9.7.6. IFC GLOBAL LLC notifies the objector of the receipt of the appeal, progress reports and outcome.

9.7.7. The decision to be communicated to the objector is made or reviewed and approved by the person(s) who are not previously related to the subject matter of the appeal.

9.7.8. IFC GLOBAL LLC will provide the objector with formal notification of the outcome of the dispute handling process.

9.8. Complaints

9.8.1. IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible for decisions at all stages of handling complaints.

9.8.2. It is ensured that the acceptance, investigation, and decision of the complaints does not result in any discriminatory activity against the complainant.

9.8.3. Upon receipt of the complaint, IFC GLOBAL LLC shall confirm whether the complaint relates to the certification activities for which IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible. If the complaint is related to certification activities, it will address the complaint. If the complaint relates to a documented organization, the effectiveness of the documented management system is considered when investigating the complaint.

9.8.4. Any complaint about the certified organization shall be directed by IFC GLOBAL LLC to the said certified client organisation in a timely manner.

9.8.5. IFC GLOBAL LLC has established and implements the Complaint and Appeal Procedure to receive, evaluate and decide on complaints. Since this process relates to the complainant and the subject of the complaint, it is subject to confidentiality requirements.

9.8.6. The stages of the complaints handling process are defined in the Complaint and Appeal Procedure.

9.8.7. Upon receipt of the complaint, IFC GLOBAL LLC is responsible for collecting and confirm all information necessary to validate the complaint.

9.8.8. Where possible, IFC GLOBAL LLC will notify the complainant of receipt of the complaint and provide progress reports and outcome.

9.8.9. The decision to be communicated to the complainant shall be made or reviewed and approved by the person(s) who have not been previously involved in the matters subject to the complaint.

9.8.10. Where possible, IFC GLOBAL LLC will formally notify the complainant of the outcome of the complaint handling process.

9.8.11. IFC GLOBAL LLC determines the subject of the complaint and whether it will be given to the public, and if so, to what extent, together with the organization and the complainant.
